

Itsy Bits and Pieces | Baby Book Nook | Baby Resources | Home Page

Treasure Valley Baby - 2007 Edition

Baby Book Nook

BOOKS FOR PARENT READERS

GRANDLOVING: MAKING MEMORIES WITH YOUR GRANDCHILDREN, 4TH EDITION

Written by Sue Johnson & Julie Carlson (Heartstrings Press)

Grandparents and grandkids go together like peanut butter and jelly. But even great family relationships can benefit from Grandloving's clever, heartfelt ideas and thoughtful advice. In this information-packed new edition, Sue Johnson and Julie Carlson, a unique mother-in-law, daughter-in-law team, teach America's nearly 100 million grandparents how to have a successful relationship. Visit the website at <http://www.grandloving.com/>.

IN THE WOMB

Written by Peter Tallack (National Geographic Books)

During its nine-month stay in its mother's womb, a baby will smile, grasp, listen, yawn, stick out its tongue, perhaps even dream. How does it grow from a single cell into a complex, multi-trillion-celled, fully equipped infant? Based on National Geographic Channel's acclaimed 2005 television production In the Womb, the book features clear, intimate views of life in utero as never seen before. For more information, visit <http://www.nationalgeographic.com/>.

YOUR PRACTICAL PREGNANCY PLANNER

Written by Brette McWhorter Sember (McGraw-Hill)

Pregnancy is a time of great changes, but there are many financial, legal, and practical choices and considerations most parents aren't aware they should be thinking about at this time during their lives. Brette McWhorter Sember gives parents the helping hand they need to confront the decisions, choices, and responsibilities that having a baby brings into their lives. Jam-packed with resources such as books, magazines, and websites, this planner is the doorway to a wealth of information that parents might not otherwise find on their own. Visit <http://www.brettewember.com/>.

THE BABY SOLUTION: YOUR ESSENTIAL RESOURCE FOR OVERCOMING INFERTILITY

Written by Daniel Kenigsberg, M.D. (Avery/Penguin Group)

For the increasing number of couples who experience infertility, the decision to become pregnant is just the first of many choices they will have to make. While a growing number of options are available for women and couples who decide to seek help with conception, there are no easy answers to the countless questions they face. Dr. Daniel Kenigsberg, an experienced reproductive endocrinologist, presents a logical, step-by-step approach that guides prospective patients to treatment based on their individual needs. Available at <http://www.amazon.com/> or most book retailers.

BOOKS FOR INFANTS AND TODDLERS

ALPHABET RESCUE

Written by Audrey Wood, illustrated by Bruce Wood (Blue Sky Press/Scholastic)

Fire! Fire! Excitement builds as the "little" lower-case letters of the alphabet are making their own fire truck—and just in time to save the day! The award-winning team of Audrey Wood and her son Bruce Wood help children to engage in a story, on their way to learning the ABCs.

AMAZING BABY SLIDE AND PEEK

Written by Beth Harwood (Silver Dolphin Books)

It's time for a little game of slide and peek! Move the peek-a-boo slider to reveal where favorite things are hiding. Fun patterns like checkers and swirls, colorful fruits, toys, and animals like bright yellow ducks, are guaranteed to delight while stimulating your baby's rapidly developing brain.

I WILL HOLD YOU 'TIL YOU SLEEP

Written by Linda Zuckerman, illustrated by Jon J. Muth (Scholastic Press)

Here is the rare book that not only expresses a parent's love for their child, but offers a hope for what that love will become. It begins with a wish at bedtime, as parents hold their children tight and hope their love will cradle them, safe and sound. It continues through the day their children have grown up, proud and strong, and can pass that love on to someone else.

